BOMA Baltimore represents the owners and managers of all commercial property types including 143 million square feet of office space that supports over 15,500 jobs and contributes $2.1 billion to the Maryland economy.

Membership Types:
- Active - Building owners and property managers join for advocacy, training, sharing of best practices, and industry information. There are three tiers of membership in this category based on the size of the building:
  - A - Non-profit organizations or less than 40,000 square feet
  - B - Buildings 40,000 – 200,000 square feet
  - C - Buildings over 200,000 square feet or corporate HQ
- Emerging Leader – Less than 5 years in industry may be added to above
- Facility Managers (individual membership)
- Property Managers of Government Buildings (individual membership)
- Associate - Service providers to commercial real estate join for networking, commercial real estate information, and support of the industry.
- Student – Enrolled in CRE or business degree program, not in CRE service/sales

Benefits:
- Advocacy – BOMA provided federal and state legislative representation on commercial real estate issues through its lobbyists in Washington and Annapolis. BOMA Baltimore also has a representative who monitors Baltimore City issues for the association. BOMA monitors and advocates for the industry on important code issues.
- Education – BOMA International provides national education opportunities through its annual conference & expo, webinars, and publications. BOMA Baltimore provides local monthly programming to include educational breakfasts, emergency preparedness events, building operations topics, networking, and an award program.
- Certification support – BOMA Baltimore provides in-person courses to help members obtain the RPA or FMA designation through BOMI International.
- Connection to members – BOMA International provides a printed member directory and all local members are included in BOMA Baltimore’s searchable online directory. Numerous networking and community service events provide opportunities to connect on a local level.
- Industry news – Members receive BOMA International’s monthly magazine with up to the minute information on what’s happening in commercial real estate
- Research – BOMA International members receive discounts on BOMA’s publications, including the Experience Exchange Report
- Recognition of Excellence – BOMA provides recognition through its 360 Building designation program and the Outstanding Building of the Year Awards.
- Savings programs – BOMA International offers beneficial savings or rebate programs with Home Depot, UPS, OfficeMax, Lenovo, and more.

For more information, visit www.boma.org or www.boma-baltimore.org.